

NO RE DAME AND ARMY GRAPPLE

In Feature Contest in East Today—Elevens Evenly Matched.

LINE-UPS ANNOUNCED

(BY JACK VEOCK.)

West Point, N. Y., Oct. 30.—Notre Dame's unbeaten football eleven, always colorful and never weak, will tackle Coach Charles Daly's rugged Army team here today.

Ideal conditions prevailed for the game. Crisp, clear weather was the order—the kind that brings out the best in a football player—and indications pointed toward a snappy contest. Army has not met defeat this season, but no team the future generals have played can be compared with Notre Dame, and Daly's outfit will no doubt have its hands full.

The Hoosiers arrived Friday, took a light workout and then "dug in" to await the zero hour. They are neither the strongest nor the heaviest team that has ever come out of Notre Dame to do battle against Army, and they are expecting a fight. They'll probably get it.

Today's game is the seventh between the rival elevens. Rockne, whose work was one of the features of Notre Dame's first victory over the Army, is now the coach of the Catholics. He developed a team that excels in the aerial branch of the game, though it has shown considerable ability to skirt the ends and slide off the tackles as well.

Gipp is Star. Halfback Gipp is the star of the Catholics. He can pass the ball with steady accuracy, and the ends with speed, pick his way through a broken field for big gains and kick with unusual brilliance. Brandy, the Notre Dame quarterback, Mohardt, Gipp's running mate, and Winn regular fullback, are all ground-gainers of ability. Kiley and E. Anderson, the ends, are adepts in taking forward passes from Gipp and Brandy.

Coach Daly boasts a backfield with considerable line-smashing ability. The Army backs also are polished in the execution of the aerial attack. Capt. Willie Bates at quarter, Lawrence and Richards at the halves and French at fullback are expected to crash through the Notre Dame line today. D. Sterck and White, the Army ends, were being counted on to play their part in taking passes from the backs.

The probable line-up:

Army.	Notre Dame.
D. Sterck	Left End.
L. Sterck	Left End.
	Right Guard.

FOR COLDS TAKE GRIP-REM

CLARK

My Friends:

I am the democratic nominee for the Tennessee legislature of whom it has been charged was laughing his way through 't's campaign. I am the one who it was said was strewing his way with sunshine and laughter. I am the one who is charged with being the apostle of music, mirth and merriment. Since when, my good friends, did the time come in Tennessee when it was against the public peace and beneath the dignity of a man seeking public office to smile? Since when did the day arrive when the meeting of a friend with a cheer was high crime in the old Volunteer State? And since when was laughter made a barrier to public office of young men ambitious to serve their party and their people? And yet—

They say I'm trying to smile my way to illustrious fame; They say I'm trying to laugh my way through the game; They say I'm too happy in this world of sorrow and pain; They say I scatter sunshine too much in this life. But what would they have me do? What would they have me say? Would they have me scowl and frown as I go on my way? Would they have me meet my friends every day in sorrow? Would they have me bring trouble ever to the morrow? If this they would have me do, and my friends thus I must meet, If smiling lessens my chances and hastens my defeat, Then I shall be one of many in this world's rank and file Who will gladly welcome defeat—but I'll do so with a smile.

And now, my friends, I am, first, for better schools and better roads in Tennessee. The log cabin schoolhouse and surfaced roads have seen their day. I am for every form of progressive legislation. You know my platform. It was published before the primary, and your endorsement of it was the splendid majority you gave me then, and for which I shall be ever grateful. If elected I shall always be at the service of my constituents. If legislation concerning the farmers comes up I shall consult the farmers. If legislation concerning the laboring man comes up I shall consult them, and if legislation concerning the manufacturing interests arises I shall consult them, etc., etc. The old stereotyped platform and the pledges of candidates constitute a worn-out custom in Tennessee, and one which the people have given little faith and no confidence. And rightfully so, because so many men seeking public office have only regarded their platform and pledges as a vehicle to ride into public office.

I am a newspaper man, and I love my profession, and I take pride in my record. There are, however, some people who have the idea that a newspaper man run heading down the branch of time with a pitchfork in one hand and a hammer in the other, looking for a chance to unearth scandal and trouble. They imagine we never see the sunshine, never glance to the side of the dusty highway of life, where flowers shed their fragrance, and that we never breathe the morning air with a feeling of warmth and happiness. They are wrong. Through the veins of no men or earth flows more freely the milk of human kindness than through the veins of newspaper men. Of course, there are trying times in our lives—times when we must choose between duty and friendship, a no easy thing. Truth is cold, hard and cruel, and I write it as I see it, but never with an intention to injure the reputation or wound the feelings of anyone. Since the beginning of my newspaper career I have always regarded my best stories were those which were written in eulogy of someone, those written to boost and help along. In my newspaper work I come in daily contact with every judge and every lawyer in Hamilton county, and they have almost unanimously endorsed my candidacy, not for any ulterior motive, but because they are the ones who know me best and know I am thoroughly qualified for the honor I seek.

Although I am a democrat and am now the nominee of my party, I have never allowed my political feelings to enter into the spirit of my stories. I have tried always and at all times to be fair and impartial. And now, my friends, in conclusion, and in connection with the only charge which has been made against me during this campaign—that of laughing—I plead guilty, and throw myself on the mercy of the voters of this county, and ask them on Nov. 2 to sentence me to the next Tennessee legislature, which time I expect and promise to serve at hard labor in the interest of my party and my people.

Respectfully,

HAYS CLARK.

LOOK OUT FOR LITTLE MEN.
